

'Ukulele Workshop: Saturday, March 12

Taught by: Kimo Hussey & Zanuck Lindsey

6:30-8:30 pm - $35.00

ASU Campus, Tempe
West Hall, Room 135
1000 Cady Mall

Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity and register now!

The topics covered in this workshop are:

- Melody, harmony, rhythm, tempo, dynamic: 5 concepts utilized to make great music
We will utilize other styles of music (blues, as an example) to help clarify and even adapt playing techniques that fit in with Hawaiian music.
- Improvisation
Learn how to approach improvisation fearlessly and incorporate it into your own playing.
- New techniques
We will share techniques to reduce the time it takes to learn new repertoire.

We want to provide tools for you to learn fuller and faster. As ukulele is primarily an instrument through which people have FUN, our #1 goal is for attendees to also have fun while experiencing instruction of the highest caliber. Kimo & Zanuck

Zanuck Lindsey

Raised in tranquil Pauoa Valley, O'ahu, Zanuck graduated from the Kamehameha Schools and earned a B.A. in Music from California State University at Northridge. Zanuck has been a professional musician, bandleader, teacher, composer, producer, and contractor for 30+ years.

Kimo Hussey

Ukulele master Kimo Hussey is one of the most respected ukulele players in the world and co-author of the best-selling Hawaiian music songbook, He Mele Aloha. Kimo is also a much-sought after performer and teacher, traveling extensively to ukulele festivals and workshops around the world.
