

The Golf Cart Song
Sung to the tune of "Ghost Riders in the Sky"
Words by Ralph Grimes

(Am) An old golf cart went driving out one (C) dark and sunny day
If you (Am) live around Sun City, they're (C) always in the (E7)way
The (Am) left turn light is blinking but they're likely turning right
You (F) almost never see them, un(Am)til they're in your sights.

CHORUS

Yipee -I-(C) ay Yipee-I-(Am) oh
(F) Golf carts hog the (Am) road

(Am) His foot is on the throttle, he's (C) staring straight ahead
He (Am) just hit two bicycles, and (C) left them there for (E7)dead
As the (Am)cars all drove on by him, he heard one call his name
If you (F)want to save your soul from hell, quit (Am) driving in my lane

CHORUS

(Am) He looked up at the driver, and (C) waved his hand in time
He (Am) only showed one finger, and (C) clenched the other (E7)nine
He (Am) yelled I'll catch up with you, and when I do you'll see
A (F) putter in a private part of (Am) your anatomy
