BLUE MOON

as recorded by The Marceles February 1961

The recording was done in two takes, which was lucky for the Marceles since they only had eight minutes left in the studio. An overzealous promo-man heard the Marceles master and played it for the famous WINS radio disc jockey Murray the K, who was so knocked out by it he reportedly played "Blue Moon" 26 times during his four-hour show

REPEAT Bom bom bom-ba bom

Blue Moon
 You saw me standing alone,
 Without a dream in my heart,
 Without a love of my own

REPEAT Bom bom bom-ba bom

Blue Moon
 You knew just what I was there for
 You heard me saying a prayer for,
 Someone I really could care for
 Wha wha wha wha aaa

And then just suddenly appeared before me,
 The only one my arms would ever hold,
 I heard somebody whisper "Please adore me"
 And when I looked the moon had turned to gold,
 Oh Oh Ohhhhhhhhhhh

Blue Moon
 Now I'm no longer alone
 Without a dream in my heart
 Without a love of my own

REPEAT Bom bom bom-ba bom

Ohhhhhh Oh Ohhhhhhh Oh Ohhhhhh Oh Dip da dip da dip

REPEAT Bom bom bom-ba bom

Ahhhhh Ah Ahhhhhh Ah Ahhhhhh Ah Dip da dip da dip
