

C Oh, we ain't got a barrel of mo-ney,
F C
F C Maybe we're ragged and fun-ny,
F Cdim
F Cdim But we'll travel along,
C A7
C A7 Singing a song,
D G C G7
D G C G7 Side by side.

C Don't know what's comin' tomor-row,
F C
F C Maybe it's trouble and sor-row,
F Cdim
F Cdim But we'll travel the road,
C A7
C A7 Sharing our load,
D G C
D G C Side by side.

E7 Through all kinds of weather,
A7
A7 What if the sky should fall?
D7
D7 Just as long as we're together,
G G7
G G7 It doesn't really matter at all.

C When they've all had their quarrels and par-ted,
F C
F C We'll be the same as we star-ted,
F Cdim
F Cdim Just a-traveling along,
C A7
C A7 Singing a song,
D G C G7 [1st time back to beginning]
D G C G7 Side by side.

Side by Side

Written in 1927 by Gus Kahn (lyrics) and Harry Woods (music), Side by Side is a standard that's been recorded by dozens of artists over the years, including Cliff "Ukalele Ike" Edwards, Ray Charles, Dean Martin, Patsy Kline and Maria Muldaur. This parody version was sung by soldiers and sailors during World War II:

"Oh, we got married last Sunday,
 the party lasted 'til Monday,
 then our friends had all gone,
 then we were alone,
 side by side."

"We got ready for bed then,
 I nearly dropped over dead when,
 her teeth and her hair,
 she placed on a chair,
 side by side."

"One glass eye came out then,
 one hearing aid so small,
 she took one of her legs off, & placed it on the chair by the wall."
 "I sat there so broken hearted,
 most of my girl had departed,
 so I slept on the chair,
 there was more of her there,
 side by side."
