

ANNIE'S LOVER

I A	V7 E7	C(I)	G7 (V7)
		Annie's lover was a big ol' man, he was a farmin' man
Bb	F7		C(I)
		Never spent much time worry 'bout the peoples in the big, big city 'cause... all he did know about was the cows and the chickens,
B	F#7		G7 (V7)
		the pigs and the horses, and the sheeps and the goats and the ducks they fly		C(I)
C	G7
		sat on a hillside, playin' his guitar, watchin' the whole thing come down in harmony
C#	A#7		G7 (V7)
		Well, Annie's lover was a big ol' man, he was a African man
D	A7			C(I)
		He walked around and looked and saw and saw everything ... that his eyes could see 'cause all he did know about was the cows and the chickens,
Eb	Bb7		G7 (V7)
		the pigs and the horses, and the sheeps and the goats and the trees and the water, and the fields and the mountains
E	B7			C(I)
		and the blue skies and the big clouds, and the ducks they fly
F	C7
		he sat on a hillside, playin' his guitar .. watchin' the whole thing come down in harmony
F#	C#7		G7 (V7)
		• Go ahead - try a scat verse here!
G	D7
		Oh, Annie's lover was a big ol' man, he was a farmin' man
Ab	Eb7		C(I)
		Never spent much time... worry 'bout the peoples in the big, big, big city 'cause all he did know about was the cows and the chickens,
		The pigs and the horses and the sheeps and the goats
		And the big, big mountains and the blue skies and the water
			G7 (V7)
		And the big trees and the grass and the ducks they fly
		He sat on a hillside, playin' his guitar watchin' the whole thing come down in harmony		C(I)
