

WHEN YOU... WALK IN THE ROOM

JACKIE DESHANNON

In 1964, Jackie toured as an opening act for The Beatles. Writing solo, she composed the hits "When You Walk In The Room" and "Come And Stay With Me." Jackie earned a million-seller in 1969 with "Put A Little Love In Your Heart," written with her brother Randy Myers and Jimmy Holiday. Subsequent writing partners include Van Morrison, John Bettis and Donna Weiss, with whom Jackie earned a 1982 Grammy for Song of the Year with "Bette Davis Eyes." In 2010, she was inducted into the Songwriters Hall Of Fame.

intro riff - Try D //// A //// D /// A ////
(not the real riff - try to work it out by listening to this great tune)

I can feel a new expression on my face
I can feel a glowing sensation taking place
I can hear the guitars playing lovely tu - nes
Every time that you walk in the room

repeat intro riff D //// A //// D /// A ////

I close my eyes for a second and pretend it's me you want
Meanwhile, I try to act so nonchalant
I see a summer's night.... with a magic mo..... ooon
Every time that you... walk in the room

repeat intro riff D //// A //// D /// A ////

Maybe it's a dream come true
Standing right alongside of you
Wish I could tell you how much I care
But I only... have the nerve to stare

I can feel a something pounding in my brain
Just anytime that someone speaks your name
Trumpets sound ... I hear thunder boo....oom
Every time that you... walk in the room

repeat intro riff then.....

Every time that you... walk in the room...

Every time that you... walk in the room...

Every time that you... walk in the room
