

CRYIN' TIME

BUCK OWENS AND THE BUCKAROOS

Alvis Edgar Owens, Jr. (August 12, 1929 - March 25, 2006), known professionally as Buck Owens, was an American musician, singer and songwriter who had 21 No. 1 hits on the Billboard country music charts with his band the Buckaroos. They pioneered what came to be called the "Bakersfield sound", a reference to Bakersfield, California, the city Owens called home, and from which he drew inspiration for what he preferred to call American music.

"Buck" had been the name of donkey on the Owens family farm. When Alvis Jr. was three or four years old, he walked into the house and announced that his name also was "Buck." That was fine with the family, and the boy's name was Buck from then on."

Oh it's cryin' time again, your gonna leave me
I can see that far away look in your eyes
I can tell by the way you hold me darling
That it won't be long before it's cryin' time

Now they say that absence makes the heart grow fonder
And that tears are only rain to make love grow
Well my love for you could never grow no stronger
If I live to be a hundred years old

Oh it's cryin' time again, your gonna leave me
I can see that far away look in your eyes
I can tell by the way you hold me darling
That it won't be long before it's cryin' time

Now you say that you've found someone you love better
That's the way it's happened every time before
And as sure as the sun comes up tomorrow
Cryin' time will start when you walk out the door

Oh it's cryin' time again, your gonna leave me
I can see that far away look in your eyes
I can tell by the way you hold me darling
That it won't be long before it's cryin' time
