

Manfred Mann himself was originally named Manfred Lubowitz; he was born October 21, 1940 in South Africa. Lubowitz originally formed the band Manfred Mann in 1962, with his friend Mike Hugg on drums, but both took a background role in live performances. The lead vocalist, harmonica player and undoubted star of the band in the early years was Paul Jones. During the British Invasion of the U.S. their song "Do Wah Diddy Diddy" reached No. 1 in 1964

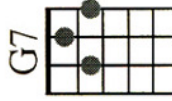

Do Wah Diddy Diddy

C There she was, just-a walkin' down the street
 C Singin' doo wah diddy, diddy dum, diddy doo
 C Snappin' her fingers and shufflin' her feet
 C Singin' doo wah diddy, diddy dum, diddy doo

C She looked good (she looked good)
 C She looked fine (she looked fine)
 C She looked good, she looked fine
 C And I nearly lost my mind

C Before I knew it she was walkin' next to me
 C Singin' doo wah diddy, diddy dum, diddy doo
 C Holdin' my hand just as natural as can be
 C Singin' doo wah diddy, diddy dum, diddy doo

Yes I did and so I told her all the things I'd been dreamin' of

C Now we're together nearly every single day
 C Singin' doo wah diddy, diddy dum, diddy doo

C We're so happy and that's how we're gonna stay
 C Singin' doo wah diddy, diddy dum, diddy doo

C Well, I'm hers (I'm hers)
 C She's mine (she's mine)

C I'm hers, she's mine
 C Wedding bells are gonna chime
