Sanita Cruz "Love Songs" February 2005

Composer and pianist Bart Howard, whose "Fly Me to the Moon (In Other Words)" was sent rocketing onto the charts by Peggy Lee and Frank Sinatra, died on February 23, 2004. He was 88 years old. His career began as a pianist for a touring dance band at the age of 16, backing Siamese twins Daisy and Violet Hilton. In 1934 he went to Los Angeles, aspiring to become a film composer. Three years later Howard went to New York City where he was encouraged by none other than Cole Porter to learn to sing his songs himself so he could get a better feel for them. In 1951 he became the MC and accompanist at Manhattan's "Blue Angel" nightclub. The artists he backed there included the young Johnny Marlin, Eartha Kitt, Dorothy Loudon, and Patricia Sanders, who was the first to perform the song Howard had entitled "In Other Words". The song took off quickly. Nancy Wilson recorded it in 1959 on her Capitol Records debut, and the following year Howard's musical fame was assured by Peggy Lee, who performed the tune on the Ed Sullivan Show for millions of viewers. From then on the tune was billed as "Fly Me to the Moon (In Other Words)", and eventually the original title was all but forgotten. Frank Sinatra guaranteed the song's endurance when he waxed it in 1961 and kept it in his repertoire for the rest of his life. Since then the song has been recorded well over 500 times. Though several of Bart Howard's other songs achieved popularity he remained chiefly known for "Fly Me to the Moon". Howard had little problem with that, as the tune made him wealthy enough to cut back on his songwriting and playing. In 1999 Bart Howard was inducted into the Songwriters Hall of Fame.
