

GET UP STAND UP

BOB MARLEY PETER TOSH

Marley wrote the song in 1974 while touring Haiti, deeply moved by its poverty and the lives of Haitians. The song was often performed as the last song at Marley's concerts. It was also the last song Marley ever performed on stage, September 23, 1980 at the Stanley Theater in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania

Cm (Bb) Cm

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, don't give up the fight

Preacherman, don't tell me, heaven is under the earth

I know you don't know what life is really worth

It's not all that glitters is gold

Half the story has never been told

So now you see the light (eh!)

Stand up for your rights (Come on!)

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, don't give up the fight

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, don't give up the fight

Most people think, great god will come from the sky

Take away everything, and make everybody feel high

But if you know what life is worth,

You will look for yours on earth

And now you see the light

You stand up for your rights.... (Jah!)

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, don't give up the fight

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, don't give up the fight

We sick and tired of your ism - skism game

Dyin' to go to heaven in 'a Jesus' name, lord

We know when we understand,

A mighty god is a living man

You can fool some people sometimes,

But you can't fool all the people, all the time

So now we see the light (What you gonna do?),

We gonna stand up for our rights (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

So you better.....

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, don't give up the fight

Get up, stand up, stand up for your rights

Get up, stand up, don't give up the fight
