

NEEDLES & PINS

THE SEARCHERS

The Searchers' hits include remakes of Jackie DeShannon's "Needles and Pins" and "When You Walk In The Room"; an original song written for them, "Sugar and Spice"; the Orlons' "Don't Throw Your Love Away"; and a cover of the Clovers' "Love Potion No. 9". They were the second group from Liverpool, after the Beatles, to have a hit in the United States when "Needles and Pins" charted during the first week of March 1964.

I saw her today..... I saw her face
 It was the face I Loved, and I knew
 I had to run away, and get down on my knees and pray

That they'd go away
 But still they'd begin a
 Needles and pins
 Because of all my pride
 The tears I gotta hide

Hey, I though I was smart.... I'd won her heart
 Didn't think I'd do, but now I see
 She's worse to him than me... Let her go ahead
 Take his Love instead, and one day she will see
 Just how to say please

And get down on her knees
 Hey, that's how it begins
 She'll feel those needles and pins, hurfin' her, hurtin' her

.....and right here try a tasty walk down - C > B > Bb > A

Why can't I stop and tell myself I'm wrong, I'm wrong, so wrong
 Why can't I stand up and tell myself I'm strong

Because I saw her today... I saw her face
 It was a face I Loved, and I knew
 I had to run away, and get down on my knees and pray

That they'd go away
 But still they'd begin a
 Needles and pins
 Because of all my pride
 The tears I gotta hide

Oh, needles and pins
 Needles and pins
 Needles and pins
