

The Wanderer (female version – with apologies to Dion and the Belmonts)

D

Oh well I'm the type of gal who will never settle down

Where handsome men are, well you know that I'm around

G

I kiss 'em and I love'em 'cause to me they're all the same

D

I hug 'em and I squeeze 'em they don't even know my name

A

G

They call me the wanderer yeah the wanderer

D

I roam around around around...

D

Oh well there's Jeff on my left and then there's Bobby on my right

And Davie is the guy, that I'll be with tonight

G

And when he asks me who's the one that makes me sigh

D

I hike up my skirt and show him Larry on my thigh

A

G

'cause I'm the wanderer yeah the wanderer

D

I roam around around around...

Bridge.

Oh well I roam from town to town

I go through life without a care

'til I'm as happy as a clown

B7

E7

With my two fists of iron and I'm going nowhere

D

I'm the type of gal that likes to roam around

I'm never in one place I roam from town to town

G

And when I find myself a-fallin' for some guy

D

I hop right into that car of mine and ride around the world

A

G

Yeah I'm the wanderer yeah the wanderer

D
